THE VINEYARD ROSE RESTAURANT REOPENS FOR WEEKEND CURBSIDE
DINNER PICK-UP FRIDAY, MAY 8

Menu Features Restaurant Favorites, Wines and Craft Beer

TEMECULA, Calif. – The Vineyard Rose Restaurant at South Coast Winery Resort & Spa reopens this Friday, May 8, for weekend takeout service from 4 to 7 p.m. on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. A special menu featuring favorite selections from the restaurant’s contemporary California cuisine menu and a reasonably priced abbreviated wine and craft beer to-go list are available for curbside pick-up.

The Vineyard Rose To-Go Menu is offered in two sizes – Single or Family style, which feeds a family of four. For Starters, there is Charcuterie for Two. Salads include South Coast Caesar and The Vineyard Rose Salad with field greens, candied pecans and local chevre. Entrée favorites are Slow Braised Short Ribs, Marinated Jidori Chicken Breast and Italian Sausage Linguini Pomodoro – all with accompaniments. Featured Desserts are New York Style Cheesecake and Apple Crostada. South Coast Winery offered wines are 2017 Merlot Rosé, 2017 Chardonnay ‘Reference,’ 2013 Rolling Hills Cabernet Sauvignon, 2016 Wild Horse Peak Syrah and others. Craft beers to go include Mother Earth Cali Creamin’, Pizza Port Chronic Ale and Temecula-based Refuge Brewery Blood Orange Wit.

Food and wine lovers will be able to drive up to The Vineyard Rose Restaurant each Friday, Saturday and Sunday until further announced starting on May 8 between 4 to 7 p.m. to pick up pre-ordered selections. Orders and requested pick-up times should be placed prior to pick-up from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Physical distancing and the safest health and sanitary practices will be implemented. The staff will deliver curbside with gloves, masks and shields. Items will be placed in the backseat of cars unless otherwise requested.
